the part of the petitioner, he was suspended from service on the ground that there is a MRP violation. It is the contention of the petitioner that on a particular day, the petitioner was not at all present in the Tasmac shop and he went to the Bank to deposit the Tasmac Sales amount. Therefore, the suspension is ipso facto void.

4. In view of the aforesaid submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, this Court, without going to the merits of the case, directs the 3rd respondent to complete the enquiry in respect of the petitioner's suspension order dated 22.04.2025 and pass final orders on its own merits and in accordance with law, within a period of four (4) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, after hearing the petitioner.
