The petitioner herein apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 4(1)(A) of TNP Act, in Crime No.112 of 2025, on the file of the respondent Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that while the respondent police were on patrol rounds near Thazhavedu, on suspicion they found the A1 having illegal possession of 180 ML of Express Brandy total of 20 bottles and that the petitioner (A2) escaped from the scene of occurrence. Hence this case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner seized the 20 bottles of Express Brandy (180 ML) without any permission. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsels on either side and perused the materials available on record.
