2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity between the defacto complainant and the first petitioner regarding selling of goats, there was quarrel between them and that the petitioners abused and assaulted the defacto complainant's father with iron rod and thereby, caused injuries to him. Hence, the present complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and they are no way connected with the alleged offence as stated by the defacto complainant and that they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that they are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police while opposing for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and that there is a case in counter in Counter Case No.190 of 2025.

5. Heard the learned counsels and perused the materials available on record.
