2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner, along with the other accused, attempted to obtain a relationship certificate for the purpose of securing a medical seat under the NRI quota. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner had bonafidely applied for the certificate since he was also an NRI through his NRI relatives. As the petitioner has been arrested and is in custody, he prayed for the grant of bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case. He further submitted that there are two accused in this case, and both have been arrested and are in custody.

5. Considering the fact and the submissions made by the learned counsel on both sides, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only) with two sureties, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.5, Coimbatore, and on further conditions that:
