ORDER

The petitioners, who were arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 10.08.2025 for the alleged offence under Section 191(2), 191(3), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 109 and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.101 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek bail.

2. The case of prosecution is that on 10.08.2025 around 03.00 hours, at Latheri Village, the petitioner along with other accused, due to previous enmity formed an unlawful assembly near the house of defacto complainant and assaulted him as well as his family members, thereby caused injuries to them. Accordingly, the complaint was registered against the petitioners.

3. The learned counsel appearing for petitioners submitted that there is no specific overtact attributed against the petitioners and they are no way connected with the offence. He would submit that they have not at all committed any of offence as alleged by the respondent police and they have been falsely implicated in this case and they will abide by any condition that may be imposed by this court. He would further submit that the investigation is almost completed and that the petitioners have been suffering incarceration for more than 31 days from 10.08.2025. Hence, he prayed to grant bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for respondent would submit that due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with other accused attacked the victim on that day, thereby the victim sustained injury and admitted in hospital and now he was discharged from the hospital. He would submit that there are 8 accused involved in this case, in which the petitioners are arrayed as A6 and A7 and the 1st petitioner is not having any previous case and the 2nd petitioner is having one previous case. He would submit that the co-accused were released on bail and if they are released on bail, they would tamper the witnesses and hamper the investigation and the investigation was completed. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances, and according to prosecution, due to previous enmity, the petitioners along with other accused have attacked the defacto complainant, due to which he sustained injury and now he was discharged from hospital, investigation was completed and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioners from 10.08.2025 for more than 31 days, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.15,000/- each, totally a sum of Rs.30,000/- (Rupees thirty thousand only) into the credit of Crime No.101 of 2025 before the concerned Magistrate within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of copy of this order and on such deposit, the defacto complainant is permitted to withdraw the amount on filing undertaking affidavit and on production of proper identification and acknowledgement. On such deposit, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each, in which one surety must be a blood surety, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Katpadi, and on further conditions that:
