2. The case of the petitioner is that petitioner had taken the premises on rent from the third respondent and she is running Spa/Wellness Centre in the premises. It is her further case that and she is in lawful possession of the premises by paying rent regularly. While so, when the petitioner was away, more than ten persons including Mr.Suresh and others posing as advocates trespassed into the property, threatened the staff and affixed a false name board in the premises, claiming right over the property. In this regard, the petitioner had given a representation dated 26.08.2025 to the first and second respondents to consider the representation and to take legal action against the trespassers.
