3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He also submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner has involved in transporting 3050 kgs of PDS rice bags and the contra band has been recovered from the petitioner and the petitioner is having one previous case pending against him. Therefore, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of this case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also taking note of the fact that the contra band has been recovered and the petitioner is ready to abide by any condition imposed of this court, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
