the amount deposited by the common public. It is stated the case is pending from the year 2005 because it is stated that the employee subsequently got mentally disturbance and he has gone away from home and remains untraceable. Thus, since the accused is mentally ill no useful purpose will be served by continuing the case also. But, however, sometime he can claim service benefits from the Postal Department. In view of the same, this is a fit case under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. This C.C shall be treated as closed. However, with liberty to the prosecution and continue the same if the accused resurfaces and if he is found to be mentally well enough to understand the consequences of the case. With the above observations, C.C stands closed.

3. Accordingly, the proceedings in C.C.No.300115 of 2010 on the file of District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate Court, Ranipet, Ranipet Taluk, Ranipet is quashed and this Sua Motu Transfer Case is disposed of.
