ORDER

WEB COPY The Criminal Original Petition has been filed seeking to quash the First Information Report in Crime No.15 of 2023, pending on the file of the first respondent, on the basis of the compromise arrived at between the petitioners and the de facto complainant/second respondent.

2. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the first respondent.

3. Based on the complaint given by the de facto complainant/R2, a case in Crime No.15 of 2023 was registered for the offences under Sections 406 and 420 IPC.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have settled the dispute with the de facto complainant/R2 amicably and hence, seek to quash the First Information Report pending against them. They have also filed a Joint Memo of Compromise to that effect.

5. The petitioners and the de-facto complainant/R2 appeared before this Court and were identified by the counsel as well as by Mr.T.Vijay

Muthukumar, Sub-Inspector of Police, DCB, Myladuthurai.

6. On being enquired by this Court, the de facto complainant stated that he has amicably settled the dispute with the petitioners and he is not willing to pursue the criminal proceedings against the petitioners. He has no objection for quashing the FIR pending on the file of the first respondent.

7. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing on behalf of the first respondent submitted that though the parties entered into a compromise while this case is pending, this Court, taking into account the seriousness of the offence has to consider the issue as to whether an offence of this nature can be quashed on the ground of compromise between parties.

8. The main issue that requires the consideration of this Court is as to whether this Court can quash the criminal proceedings involving non-compoundable offences pending against the petitioners. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Parbathbhai Aahir @ Parbathbhai Vs. State of Gujrath, reported in 2017 9 SCC 641 and in case of The State of

Madhya Pradesh Vs. Dhruv Gurjar and Another reported in (2019) 2 MLJ

WEB COPY Crl 10, has given sufficient guidelines that must be taken into consideration by this Court while exercising its jurisdiction under Section 482 of Cr.P.C, to quash non-compoundable offences. One very important test that has been laid down is that the Court must necessarily examine if the crime in question is purely individual in nature or a crime against the society with overriding public interest. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that offences against the society with overriding public interest even if it gets settled between the parties, cannot be quashed by this Court.

9. In the present case, the offences in question are purely individual/personal in nature. It involves dispute between the petitioners and the second respondent and quashing the proceedings will not affect any overriding public interest in this case and no useful purpose will be served in continuing with the criminal proceedings. In view of the above, this Court is inclined to quash the First Information Report registered in Crime No.15 of 2023 pending on the file of the first respondent in exercise of its jurisdiction under Section 482 of Cr.P.C.

10. In view of the above, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed.

CrI.O.P.No.25324 of 2025

The First Information Report in Crime No.15 of 2023 pending on the file of the first respondent, is quashed as against the petitioners. The Joint Memo of Compromise filed by the petitioners and the second respondent for compromising the offences shall form part of this order.
