The petitioners, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 132, 351(2) and Information Technology Act 67 in Crime No.262 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant working in Tamil nadu electricity board and the petitioners threatened to kill electricity board employees by using derogatory words pulling their shirts and preventing them from doing government work and who have circulated it on social media in a wrong manner lead to criminal complaints everything in CSR stage, be it so on 26.05.2025, it was alleged that the accused had contacted the defacto complainant through and scolded her with unparliamentary words. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

Crl.O.P.No.24664 of 2025

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the injured discharged. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court No.II, Nagapattinam, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and
