the police are not taking effective steps to secure his wife and children, he has preferred the present petition.

3. On instructions, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that on a complaint filed by the petitioner, a case in Thiruverkadu Police Station Crime No.538 of 2025 has been registered on 10.08.2025 for “woman, girl and boy missing” and during the course of investigation, it came to light that the petitioner's wife is residing with her mother in Bengaluru and she has given statement to the police that she is not willing to join the petitioner. He also produced a photocopy of the statement given by the petitioner's wife before this Court.

4. A perusal of the statement given by the petitioner's wife clearly shows that she is not in the illegal custody of anyone for the issuance of writ of habeas corpus. Since, it is a matrimonial issue, it is for the petitioner to workout his remedy in the manner known to law.
