2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused abused and attacked the de-facto complainant. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submits that the injured victim has since been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail. He further submitted that the co-accused had already been arrested and released on bail and that no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the fact that, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
