2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with another accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy words and assaulted him on his mouth with wooden log. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the injured discharged. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner voluntarily submitted that the petitioner, in order to show his bonafide, is ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- to the credit of the Crime No.349 of 2024 without prejudice to his right in the above case.

6. Considering the nature of allegations and the submission that the petitioner is willing to deposit an amount of Rs.10,000/- to the credit of Crime No.349 of 2024, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
