[hereinafter referred to as "I.O.A"]. He has given a legal notice dated 30.11.2021 challenging the violation of bye-laws of the Association by one Durai and 10 others Executive Committee members and also violation of Sections 19 and 46(2) of the Tamil Nadu Societies Registration Act, 1975. He also submitted a representation on 15.01.2022 which did not evoke any response. Hence, the petitioner submitted another representation dated 22.04.2022 to the first respondent under Section 52(2) of the Tamil Nadu Societies Registration Act, 1975, seeking previous sanction in writing to initiate prosecution against the President and other Executive Committee Members of I.O.A, who have contravened and violated bye laws of the Association and also Sections 19 and 46(2) of the Tamil Nadu Societies Registration Act, 1975. This also did not evoke any response and therefore, the petitioner filed another application under the Right to Information Act and he got reply that his representation dated 22.04.2022 was forwarded to the second respondent and the same is pending.
