2. When the matter was taken up for hearing, the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent submitted that an FIR has been registered against the petitioner in Crime No.715 of 2025 for the offence punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS.

3. The case of the prosecution is that due to family dispute, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and defacto complainant, which quarrel escalated into violence and leads to registration of FIR.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the de facto complainant has sustained only simple injuries and got treatment only as an out patient. Hence, the learned counsel prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the defacto complainant sustained only simple injuries and treated as out patient. He further submitted that there are no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the representation made by both side learned counsels, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
