The petitioners herein apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 506(i) of I.P.C., in Crime No.484 of 2025 on the file of the respondent Police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the dispute is purely of a monetary nature, which has been unnecessarily given a criminal colour. Hence, he prays that anticipatory bail may be granted to the petitioners.

3. The learned counsel for the intervenor submits that when the de-facto complainant demanded the petitioners to return the money, a wordy quarrel ensued, which is also involved dire consequences. Hence, the present complaint came to be lodged.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police while opposing for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case.

5. Heard the learned counsels on either side and perused the materials
