2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 1.100 Kgs of Ganja. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner states that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that there are no previous cases pending as against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the fact that the petitioner is not having any previous case and considering the period of incarceration suffered by the petitioner and the seized contraband is also an intermediate quantity, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
