money against the respondents/defendants, based on the loan transaction. It is seen from the remarks submitted by the learned Principal District Judge, Chengalpattu that the defendants 3 to 6 were set exparte on 13.06.2018 for their failure to file written statement. Thereafter, the said exparte order was set aside on 17.11.2021 at the instance of the petition filed by the defendants 3 to 6 and issues were framed on 15.12.2021 and PW1 was examined in chief on 07.11.2022. Subsequently, the case was adjourned from time to time periodically for cross examination of PW1. Again, defendants 2 to 5 were set exparte on 07.08.2023 and the matter was posted for pronouncing judgment on 28.08.2023. Subsequently, the case was reopened for clarification on 09.10.2023. A petition under Order IX Rule 7 CPC was filed to set aside the exparte order and the same was allowed on condition to deposit a sum of Rs.4,00,000/- in court on or before 08.08.2024 and the case was posted for reporting compliance on 09.08.2024. filed by the defendants 2 to 5 were dismissed and the case was posted for pronouncing judgment on 06.09.2024. Again, on 30.09.2024, the case was reopened for clarification regarding limitation. On 29.10.2025, the petitioner/plaintiff was called absent and hence the suit was posted for perusal of records and passing orders by 05.12.2025.
