Woman Act, on the file of the respondent Police, and therefore seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the land dispute between the de-facto complainant and the petitioners led to an attack using hands and legs. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submits that the injured victim has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the fact that, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail on their executing a separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the
