2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had impersonated himself as a Food Safety Officer and unlawfully took a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- from the cash box of the defacto complainant. Hence, the present case has been registered.

3. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner and submitted that the petitioner is a habitual offender and has 5 previous cases pending against him. He further submitted that the final report has already been filed.

4. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

5. Considering the objection raised by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and the petitioner has been in judicial custody for more than 269 days, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five
