2. According to the prosecution, the petitioner and others parked their vehicle in the middle of the road, thereby causing a public nuisance. When the police officials to discharge their duty by preventing the nuisance, the petitioner and others engaged in a quarrel with the police and used abusive and filthy language. Hence, the present case has been registered.

3. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner and submitted that the petitioner had attacked the defacto complainant on his head, thereby causing injuries.

4. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

5. Considering the said fact and the petitioner has been in judicial custody for more than 42 days and the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only)
