2.The allegation against this petitioner is that due to wordy quarrel, this petitioner joined hands with other accused and assaulted the defacto complainant with wooden log. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He submits that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He also submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and ready to furnish sufficient solvent sureties for his release. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and submits that there are totally two accused in this case and the petitioner is arrayed as A2. He submits that A1 was arrested and subsequently, enlarged on bail. He further submits that due to previous enmity, A2 attacked the defacto complainant with wooden log. He also submits that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
