4. The crux of the final report as against the petitioners is that they are the Directors of the Company namely Team Life Care Company (India) Limited, which was a channel partner of Bajaj Allianz Insurance Company and TLC Insurance India Private Limited. The defacto complainant joined as a Co-ordinator in TLC Insurance India Private Limited and introduced some persons to Bajaj Allianz Insurance Company through Team Life Care Company (India) Limited on commission basis. The introducers of the defacto complainant joined in the Bajaj Alliance Insurance Company and got their policies. It is the grievance of the defacto complainant that the TLC Insurance India Private Limited has failed to pay the commission. Hence, the complaint.

5. Though the defacto complainant is said to have been received certain amount as commission, according to him, the entire commission amount has not been received. Hence, he preferred a complaint as against the petitioners herein. Now, challenging the final report, the petitioners have filed this criminal original petition.

6. On a perusal of the entire final report, it is found that there is no material available to show that there was a deception at the inception in order to attract the offence of cheating.
