2. The case of the prosecution is that petitioner along with other accused indulged in child trafficking and it is alleged that the petitioner approached the defacto complainant for selling of child for a sum of Rs.12,00,000/- Subsequently, while handed over the child, they got red handed by the police. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has been falsely implicated in this case. However, she is suffering incarceration from 24.07.2025. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the defacto complainant was known to the accused and he was contacted by the accused for selling of child, but the complainant informed the same to the police subsequently, the accused persons caught red handed and the child was also secured and handed over to the biological parents. He submits that no previous case is pending against this petitioner. Hence, he opposed for
