relationship with the de-facto complainant on several occasions by giving false promise to marry her. Thereafter, he refused to marry her. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the de-facto complainant had consensual relationship with the petitioner herein. He further submits that the petitioner who is aged about 30 years and the de-facto complainant who is aged about 34 years. He further submits that there was no relationship between the petitioner and the de-facto complainant from the year 2015. He also submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and ready to furnish sufficient solvent sureties for his release. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and submits that the petitioner had sexual intercourse with the de-facto complainant on several occasions by giving false promise to marry her and thereafter, he refused to marry the victim. He further submits that the petitioner who is aged about 30 years and the de-facto complainant who is aged about 34 years.

However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsels and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the age of victim and fact that both were in relationship for several years, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Additional Mahila Court, Villupuram, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
