2. The allegation against the petitioners is that there was wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the son of the de-facto complainant. Over the arguments regarding “parking vehicle”, the petitioners used filthy language and assaulted the son of the de-facto complainant with stone and liquor bottle, resulting in which, the son of the de-facto complainant sustained injuries. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He submits that they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that this case is a case-in-counter in Crime No.239 of 2025 registered against the son of the de-facto complainant. He further submits that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. He also submits that the petitioners are ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and ready to furnish sufficient solvent sureties for his release. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and the injured has been discharged from the hospital. He further submits that this case is a case in counter in Crime No. 239 of 2025 registered against the son of the de-facto complainant. He further submits that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsels on either side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, submissions made by learned counsels on either side and considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from
