hands with other accused has abducted the college student, who is studying at Sathyabama University and demanded Rs.1,00,000/- and subsequently, after collecting Rs.58,700/- from the student, let him out. Hence, the present complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that this petitioner has been wrongly implicated in this case and no money was transferred in this case. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and reported that totally 12 accused persons involved in this case, out of which, 8 accused were arrested and enlarged on bail. He further reported that though money was transferred into the account of A3, no money was recovered from them. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
