2. The allegation against the petitioner is that there was a previous enmity between the defacto complainant and the accused persons/A1 to A7. On 22.08.2025, A5 called the defacto complainant by phone and scold him and also told him to come to PSB Mahal, Padappai. When the defacto complainant along with his friend went to the said place, there was a quarrel arose between them, this petitioner along with other accused attacked the defacto complainant with deadly weapons and caused injuries. Hence, the present complaint

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that this is case and case in counter and the petitioner and his friends also sustained injuries. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and reported that the injured were discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case against the petitioner. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
