2. The allegation against the petitioner is that when the defacto complainant and his friends were consuming alcohol, the petitioner went to attend a natural call at a nearby place, which was questioned by the defacto complainant. Due to this, the petitioner along with his friends attacked the defacto complainant and his friends with bamboo sticks and caused injuries to them. Hence, the present complaint

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that this petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and reported that the injured were discharged from the hospital and this petitioner is having one previous case. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by both counsels, and taking note of the fact that the injured have been discharged from the hospital and that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made, before the learned Judicial Magistrate -I, Arakkonam on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction learned Magistrate concerned, and on further condition that:

(a) If the petitioner fails to surrender before the concerned Magistrate within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, this order shall stand automatically cancelled;
