3. The learned counsel for the petitioner/accused would submit that there are arguable points available in the Criminal Appeal and the petitioner/accused has got a fair chance of succeeding in the Criminal Appeal and hence, the substantive sentence imposed against him may be suspended. He would submit that the petitioner is ready to abide by the condition imposed by this Court.

4. Per contra, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent/State raised serious objection for allowing this petition. Further, he would contend that the evidences recorded from the prosecution witnesses would prove the case of the prosecution beyond reasonable doubt. According to him, interference of this Court is not necessary in the findings arrived at by the trial Court.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and also perused the materials placed on record.

6. A perusal of the records reveals that the petitioner has made out a prima facie case for grant of suspension of the sentence imposed by the Trial Court. That apart, the petitioner is in incarceration imprisonment from 02.12.2022. Further, A3 and A4 have already been granted bail by this Court in Crl.M.P.Nos.17597 & 1248 of 2023 vide order dated 29.01.2024.
