The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 19.07.2025 for the offences punishable under Sections Woman missing @ 194 BNSS (suspicious death), Sections 108 and 238 of BNS in Crime No.92 of 2025, registered on the file respondent police, seeks bail. The earlier bail application of the petitioner is dismissed as withdrawn, vide order dated 03.09.2025 in Crl.O.P.No.24212 of 2025.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, the deceased aged about 30 years is the wife of the defacto complainant and on 10.07.2025, the deceased informed the defacto complainant that she is going to hospital in a two wheeler bearing Registration No.TN-88-AY-1470 and she had not returned; that thereafter, a complaint was lodged by the defacto complainant; subsequently on 18.07.2025, the body of the deceased was found at Athiuyappa Mudaliar Mullukadu, Nandhai Kolakadu; that upon investigation, it is revealed that the petitioner and the deceased had an illicit relationship and on 10.07.2025, they both met and a wordy quarrel arose between them, thereby the petitioner left the deceased and went from the spot; that thereafter, while the petitioner returned to the spot, found that the deceased committed suicide by hanging in a neem tree; that the petitioner lifted the deceased from the tree and placed her body nearby her vehicle. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated and he is in custody since 19.07.2025. He also submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and sought for bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent while opposing the bail to the petitioner reiterated the prosecution case and stated that the petitioner and the deceased has illicit relationship and also the reason for the death of the deceased; and that major part of the investigation is completed.

5. Considering the facts of the case, the overt act against the petitioner, the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner and the fact that major part of the investigation is completed, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
