3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He also submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and ready to furnish sufficient solvent sureties for his release. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and submits that the petitioner along with other co-accused had robbed the mobile phone from the de-facto complainant. He further submits that the property has not yet recovered from the accused and one previous case in respect of 302 of IPC is pending against the petitioner herein. Therefore, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the fact that one previous case u/s. 302
