2. The allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner had visited the Annur Government Veterinary Hospital, Coimbatore for taking medical treatment for his dog. After making enquiry, there was a quarrel between the parties. Hence, the case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has enquired about the absence of Doctors and expressed his concern regarding the same. He further submitted that taking advantage of the official position of the defacto complainant, the complaint has been lodged against the petitioner. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and reported that there is no previous case as against this petitioner. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by both counsel, and taking note of the fact that there is no previous case as against the petitioner, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
