Dharmapuri District. In this regard, two complaints had already been lodged and CSR were issued. Though both the CSRs were closed, the title in respect of the subject property cannot be decided by the Revenue Authorities, as such dispute falls within the jurisdiction of the competent Civil Court.

4. In view of the above, the representation submitted by the petitioner cannot be considered, since the dispute involves question of title, which cannot be adjudicated by the Revenue Authorities. The petitioner ought to have approached the civil Court for appropriate relief. If the petitioner succeeds in the civil proceedings, she can very well approach the Revenue Officials for issuance of patta, based on the outcome of the said proceedings.

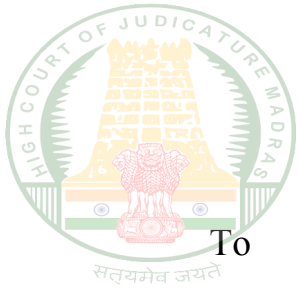

5. In the result, this Writ Petition stands dismissed. N costs.
