- (i) The accused has no previous or subsequent case and a due report from the probationary officer regarding his conduct has already been received.
- (ii) The accused has also been facing the case all these years.

4. In view thereof, I find that this is a fit case where the provisions of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, can be invoked. Accordingly, upon the plea of the accused, the accused is found guilty of the offence under Sections 448, 294(b) and 506(2) of Indian Penal Code, 1860. However, without proceeding to sentence the accused, this Court releases the accused on probation under the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, on the following conditions:

(a) The accused shall execute a bond before the learned Magistrate undertaking good conduct for a period of one year, failing which he shall appear before this Court to receive sentence.

(b) It is made clear that, as per Section 12 of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, the finding of guilty will not be a disqualification for any purpose.
