ORDER

This Criminal Miscellaneous Petition has been filed by the petitioner, seeking suspension of sentence imposed by the learned Sessions Judge, Magalir Neethimandram, (Fast Track Mahila Court), Erode, in Spl.S.C.No.19 of 2020 dated 05.05.2021 and enlarge the petitioner on bail pending disposal of the above appeal.

2. The petitioner herein is the accused in Spl.S.C.No.19 of 2020 on the file of the learned Sessions Judge, Magalir Neethimandram, (Fast Track Mahila Court), Erode. He was found guilty of the offences under Section 5(1), 5(m) r/w 6 of POCSO Act and he has been convicted and sentenced to undergo Rigorous Imprisonment for 20 years and to pay a fine of Rs.50,000/- for each count (totally Rs.1,00,000/-) in default of payment of fine, to undergo simple imprisonment for three months. Aggrieved by the same, the petitioner had filed this appeal along with the present miscellaneous petition.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner/accused would submit that he has been falsely implicated in this case as if he had committed sexual assault to the victim girl, but in fact he has not committed any offence as alleged against him. He would submit that he is in custody from the date of judgment i.e. on 05.05.2021 for more than five years and five months. He would submit that A1 is still in prison, A3 was released on bail and this petitioner is arrayed as A2. He would also submit that there are arguable points available in the Criminal Appeal and the petitioner/accused have got a fair chance of succeeding in the Criminal Appeal and hence, the substantive sentence imposed against the petitioner/accused may be suspended. He would submit that the petitioner is ready to abide the condition imposed by this Court.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent/State raised serious objection for allowing this petition and contended that the petitioner is a married man. Further, he would contend that he has no bad antecedents and at the time of occurrence, victim girl is aged about 11 years and he is aged about 36 years. He would further submit that the evidences recorded from the prosecution witnesses would prove the case of the prosecution beyond reasonable doubt. According to him, interference of this Court is not necessary in the findings arrived at by the trial Court.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and also perused the materials placed on record.

6. On seeing the facts, it reveals that both the victim and the petitioner were belong to same locality and he is a married man, due to his incarceration, his family is struggling for their livelihood and he is in custody from the date of judgment i.e. on 05.05.2021 for more than five years and five months and he has no bad antecedents. A1 is still in prison, A3 was released on bail and this petitioner is arrayed as A2. Considering that and considering the facts and circumstances of the case coupled with the quantum of punishment imposed upon the petitioner, also by considering the submissions of the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, further this criminal appeal is not likely to be taken for final hearing in the near future, this Court is of the view that the substantive sentence of imprisonment alone can be suspended on certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, till the disposal of the Criminal Appeal, the substantive sentence of imprisonment imposed by the learned trial Judge is alone suspended and bail are granted on the following conditions:
