ORDER

The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner / A1 is the husband of the defacto complainant and he has made dowry demand and cheated 123 sovereigns of gold and Rs.2 crores of cash.

2. This is the second anticipatory bail petition. The earlier anticipatory bail petition in respect of A1/husband was dismissed on 19.03.2024, by making

“10. The allegations are extremely serious and there has been no regret and there is no maintenance paid atleast for the two children. Now, the girl children are under the care and protection of the defacto complainant. Investigation will have to be done. A2 is absconding and it is a wonder as to why the Investigation Officer has not issued Look Out notice for A2. The respondent has also to ensure that restitution of gold and cash is done for the benefit of the defacto complainant.

11. In view of the above, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner herein. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.”

3. This Court is of the view that there is no change in circumstances and hence, is not inclined to entertain this second anticipatory bail petition.

4. Hence, the anticipatory bail petition is dismissed.
