are poor agriculturist and do not have sufficient funds to deposit the conditional amount imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks modification of the said order.

3. I have carefully perused the materials available on record.

4. The allegations against the petitioners relate to job racketing, wherein they are said to have collected a sum of Rs.20,00,000/- from several individuals on the promise of providing employment. The condition imposed was proportionate to the gravity of the offence, and since there has been no change in circumstances, this Court is not inclined to modify the earlier order.

5. Accordingly, this criminal miscellaneous petition stands dismissed.
