ORDER

Apprehending arrest in connection with Crime No.125 of 2024 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 406, 420 and 120B of IPC, the present petition has been filed seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant

Gayathiri is that her husband and the first accused were colleagues and known to each other. It is alleged that the first accused along with his mother and friends had introduced the defacto complainant's husband to invest 1.8 Crores, on the assurance to induct him as a business partner and later cheated him. Hence, the case.

3. Pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner, false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court. Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner, other than being the mother of A1 has no role in the case.

4. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent is that the petitioner is the mother of A1. A1 had introduced the defacto complainant to other accused and made him to invest a huge sum of money to the tune of Rs.1.8 Crores and later cheated him. Hence, he oppose for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. The learned counsel for the Intervenor would submit that the
