4. In view thereof, since it is submitted that the report of the Probationary Officer will be obtained in a few days, in an extraordinary circumstance, where, the Dedicated Bench is closing first batch of cases, this case is treated as an extraordinary case where the provisions of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, can be invoked to release the accused on probation. Accordingly, upon the plea of the accused, the accused is found guilty of the offence under Sections 279 and 304-A of Indian Penal Code, 1860. However, without proceeding to sentence the accused, this Court releases the accused on probation under the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, on the following conditions:

(a) The Probationary Officer's report shall also be produced before the learned Magistrate and upon production of the same, the accused shall be released on probation.

(b) The accused shall execute a bond before the learned Magistrate undertaking good conduct for a period of one year, failing which he shall appear before this Court to receive sentence.

(c) It is made clear that, as per Section 12 of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, the finding of guilty will not be a disqualification for any purpose.

5. Accordingly, the case in C.C.No.7 of 2022 of Judicial Magistrate, Arani, Arani Taluk, Tiruvannamalai, stands disposed of. This Sua Motu Transfer Case is disposed of.
