3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the applicant is the legally wedded wife and nominee of the deceased. Only to prove the same, the application had been filed to mark the copy of the Pension Pay order and Retirement Pension benefit records of the deceased. A counter had been filed by the respondent. A perusal of the said counter, the respondent had not disputed the nomination of the applicant by the deceased and the details in the said documents has claimed by the applicant.

4. The learned counsel for the respondent would submit that at any stretch of imagination, this records cannot substantiate the legality of the marriage i.e., claimed by the applicant.

5. In such view of the admitted fact there is no necessity to prove the same by issuing the Subpoena as prayed for in this application.

6. In fine, the application in A.No.218 of 2025 in O.P.No.768 of 2018 is dismissed and the matter is relegated to the learned Master for completion of evidence.

List the matter before the Master on 24.02.2025.
