indulgence of this court. He submits that the petitioner has involved in IPC cases and the respondent, in order to curtail his activities, falsely implicated the petitioner based on the confession statement recorded from the arrested accused from whom contraband has been recovered. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3.The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of anticipatory bail, is that the contraband seized from the A1-Hari is 0.84 grams of Methamphetamine which falls under intermediate quantity and the petitioner is the supplier and he has involved in six previous cases and no NDPS case is pending against him.

4.At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his defense and contention, is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.5,000/- as non-refundable deposit to any welfare scheme of the Government or any organization.

Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
