ORDER

WEB COPY (Order of the Court was made by S.M.SUBRAMANIAM, J.)

The order passed by the State Human Rights Commission in SHRC Case case No.5495/22/48 of 2024, dated 26.11.2024 is under challenge in the present Writ Petition.

2. The 6th respondent is the complainant before the Commission. The Commission adjudicated the complaint given by the 6th respondent/D.Venkatesh Kumar and directed the Superintendent of Police, Krishnagiri District to provide sufficient police protection to the petitioner/complainant, whenever he submits a petition in this regard and to clear the obstructions, if any, in his business premises.

3. Perusal of the order impugned passed by the State Human Rights Commission reveals that the Writ Petitioner / M/s.Kay Jay Forgings Private Limited is not a party to the proceedings. Certain general observations are made by the Commission and a direction was issued to provide protection to the 6th respondent/complainant.

W.P.No.628 of 2025

4. Learned counsel for the Writ Petitioner would submit that though the Writ Petitioner has not been impleaded as a party, the issues relating to the petitioner has been adjudicated by the State Human Rights Commission.

5. In view of the fact that Writ Petitioner is not a party to the proceedings of the State Human Rights Commission, the impugned order is not binding on the Writ Petitioner. If at all the petitioner is of the opinion that the findings caused prejudice to his interest, the petitioner is at liberty to approach the State Human Rights Commission for recalling the order or to review the order impugned.

6. It is made clear that certain disputed issues of civil nature cannot be adjudicated by the Human Rights Commission. Certain findings, though related to business disputes, there is no mentioning of the name of petitioner in the order. Therefore, this Court is of the opinion that the said order would not have any binding effect as far as the petitioner is concerned. Petitioner is at liberty to work out his remedy, if any grievance exist.

7. With the above observations, the Writ Petition is disposed of. No
