For Respondent(s): Mr.S.Udayakumar,
Government Advocate (Crl.Side)

ORDER

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offence under Sections 278, 123 and 132 of BNS Act in Crime No.417 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioner is that he joined with other accused who is ranked as A3 went to Maharashtra and brought Tapentadol 1700 nos tablet 100 mg and after the contraband brought to Chennai. A3 while attempting to sell the same, he was arrested red handedly with the tablets.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is working in a private company and he is not aware about the nature of contraband and he has been falsely implicated in this case and prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. He further submitted that there is no previous case against this petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner is also actively involved in this case and opposed to grant bail. He further submitted that the chemical analysis report is also awaited.

5. Considering the allegation that the Tapentadol tablet has been misused by these petitioners under the pretext of narcotics. Since no previous case is pending against the petitioner and the property also recovered, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Poonamallee, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further condition:
