2. The incarceration of the petitioners being from 02.12.2024 pleading innocence on the part of the petitioners and false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioners seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioners are in no way connected with the alleged offence, however, in order to keep them under fetters, they have been implicated in this case by the respondent. He further submits that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of bail, is that when the de facto complainant had refused to give money as demanded by the accused, the accused had abused him in filthy language and by intimidating him at knife point, extorted a sum of Rs.1250/- from him and further, threatened him with dire consequences.. He further submits that the investigation in this case is still pending and further, the petitioners are habitual offenders, having several previous cases, therefore, if they are released on bail at this stage, there is every possibility of them absconding and not available for further investigation.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioners, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the
