The petitioners, who were arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 21.09.2025 for the alleged offence under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 109(1), 353(3) of BNS, 2023 and Section 3 of Tamil Nadu Public Property (Prevention of Damage and Loss) Act, 1992 (Under Section 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324, 307, 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.305 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy altercation between the accused persons, including these petitioners and the defacto complainant, following which, they have attacked the village people, who participated in a puberty function at Manthaveli and damaged tube lights, serial lights, chairs and also abused them by using filthy language. Hence, the present case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons, they have falsely implicated in this case; the petitioners have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution; and that the petitioners are ready to produce solvent sureties and ready to abide any conditions that may imposed by this Court and also undertake to appear and to co-operate for the investigation, and prayed to grant bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and reported that it is a case and case in counter. The petitioners have attacked the village people, who participated in a puberty function at Manthaveli and damaged huge value of property, two persons were injured and they were discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioners.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by both counsel, the injured were discharged from the hospital, the period of incarceration and the fact that the manner in which the occurrence had taken place, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

8. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail on their executing bonds for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the
