2. The allegations against the petitioner is that this petitioner had resisted the police officials from performing their duties and also threatened them with dire consequence. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner was not assaulted or caused any injury to the police officials and has been falsely implicated in this case. The petitioner is in judicial custody from 04.09.2025. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by the this Court. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner is having one previous case, which is under Section 302 of IPC. He further submitted that the petitioner herein had arrested recently. Hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
