2. The allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner had committed robbery of Rs.2000/- at knife point. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an contract worker and he has not involved in the alleged robbery and the previous cases registered against him are only for nuisance case. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner has five previous cases, out of which, two cases are for nuisance and one case under 307 IPC and one under 323 IPC. Hence, he strongly opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of the offence committed by the petitioner and taking into account the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:
