2. The allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner joined with other accused attacked the defacto complainant with knife and wooden log, due to which, the defacto complainant sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he did not attacked the injured and others who attacked the injured have already been granted bail by the trial Court. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and co-accused were released on bail. Hence, he strongly opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the fact that the co-accused already granted bail by the Lower Court and also the fact that injured victim discharged from the hospital and taking into account the period of incarceration, this Court is
