is also present and he has shown his remarks for his conduct. Considering the nature of the incident and the overall facts and circumstances of the case while framing the conviction as imposed by the Trial Court, by the judgement dated 27.12.2023 by the Learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Ulundurpet, in C.C.No.93 of 2017, instead of proceeding further to sentence the accused after admonishing, the accused is released on probation.

4. In that view of the matter, the following was considered:

- (i) The accident was not due to any aggravated or egregious conduct.
- (ii) The victim has received compensation.
- (iii) The accused has no previous or subsequent case and a due report from the probationary officer regarding his conduct has already been received.
- (iv) The accused has also been facing the case all these years.

5. In view thereof, I find that this is a fit case where the provisions of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, can be invoked. Accordingly, upon the plea of the accused, the accused is found guilty of the offence under Sections 279 and 304(A) of Indian Penal Code, 1860. However, without proceeding to sentence the accused, this Court releases the petitioner on probation under the
